Recognition of Prior Learning

FASEA's Education Policy FPS001 makes provision for the recognition of prior learning (RPL) in assessing the appropriate education pathway for both existing and new advisers.

RPL is defined in the Australian Qualification Framework (AQF) as a process through which eligibility for the award of credit is assessed, through assessment of formal, informal and non-formal learning. RPL is a legitimate part of the admission process to and completion of certain higher education.

Existing Advisers:

For the purposes of the Existing Adviser pathways, RPL is specified by FASEA for each pathway. Education providers seeking approval for programs and courses for these pathways will need to apply RPL as per this policy.

FASEA intends to monitor and review RPL practices and may issue further guidance for providers in the future, with the aim of consistency, transparency and adherence to policy and the law in terms of the application of RPL and reserves the right to re-assess RPL awarded in breach of TEQSA guidelines.

Existing Advisers are eligible, dependent on the pathway, for exemptions via RPL, for:

Type of Qualification	AQF Level	Number of subjects	Number of credits
Diploma of Financial Advice/Planning or equivalent (includes RG146)	5	4	0
Advanced Diploma of Financial Advice/Planning or FASEA approved equivalent	6	8	2
Approved coursework completed to attain a Professional Designation	7 or above	varies	Up to 2
4-7 related field of study in: financial planning, investments, accounting, taxation/tax law (as defined by the Tax Practitioners Board (TPB)), finance law, finance, business law or commercial law (as defined by the TPB), estate law, banking and economics.	7 or above	4 to 7	2
Non- relevant degree	7 or above	8, 12 or 24	1

RPL cannot be awarded for FASEA's Ethics for Professional Advisers bridging course as the Code is new. RPL can be awarded for the Financial Advice Regulatory & Legal Obligations & Behavioural Finance bridging courses as long as substitute courses have been approved by FASEA.

The courses equivalent to an advanced diploma and coursework to achieve a professional designation that FASEA has approved for the purposes of RPL for Existing Adviser Pathways are detailed below.

Advanced Diploma of Financial Planning/Advice or Equivalent

Existing advisers who have completed the Advanced Diploma of Financial Planning/Advice (ADFP/A) will be awarded a maximum of two credits.

The following courses have been assessed as equivalent to an ADFP/A:

New Entrants:

For the purposes of the new entrant pathways, RPL is a matter of individual policy for the Higher Education Provider (HEP) as long as:

- RPL provided (in any form) does not exceed 50% of the approved program;
- a provider's RPL policy, process and outcomes are reported to FASEA through FPS002 Program and Provider Accreditation Policy process and are adhered to; and
- Any exceptions to the application of these policies and processes are reported to FASEA in a timely manner.

FASEA intends to monitor and review RPL practices and may issue further guidance for providers in the future, with the aim of consistency, transparency and adherence to policy and the law in terms of the application of RPL and reserves the right to re-assess RPL awarded in breach of Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Authority (TEQSA) guidelines.
